DAN CREEVEY, PRINCIPAL

COMMERCIAL & AGRIBUSINESS LAW

WE UNDERSTAND WHAT MATTERS MOST

WHAT IS INVOLVED

As the cornerstone of our practice, we specialise in providing practical solutions to commercial and agribusiness law matters. With the rural lifestyle as part of our heritage, we have first hand understanding of the issues that impact on both city and rural businesses.

We've successfully acted in a number of important matters involving transport and infrastructure, mining, tree clearing, spray drift, boundary disputes and partnership breakdowns. Our areas of specialisation include farm and business succession right through to rural property sales and large developments.

WHAT WE LOOK AFTER

- Commercial and property transactions
- Transport, logistics and infrastructure
- Buying and selling businesses
- Water allocation licensing and resource operations plans
- Rural Succession Planning – wills and estate advice and litigation
- Partnership, joint-venture and share farming agreements
- Business structuring and asset protection – drafting agreements
- Implications on taxation, stamp duty, GST and capital gains tax
- Land Clearing – mining compensation and resumption
- Tenure Management – natural resource management
- Family Law – dispute resolution / negotiation of family business issues
- Farming leases – livestock leases and feedlot leases

FAMILY & PERSONAL LAW

FAIR IS FAIR

WHAT IS INVOLVED

Family law is an increasingly complex and niche area in which to practice.

Our family lawyers are focused, dedicated practitioners working exclusively in the field. Comprehensive knowledge of the law is matched with a practical approach, meaning that the needs of all our clients are identified and efficiently met.

We tread lightly with families, exploring a range of out-of-court options to maximise client satisfaction with outcomes and minimise conflict and expense. However, if court is necessary, our skills are exceptional.

WHAT WE LOOK AFTER

FAMILY

- Separations and divorce
- Binding financial agreements
- Children issues
- De facto relationship property settlements
- Matrimonial property resolution
- Spousal maintenance
- Parenting plans

PERSONAL LAW

- Personal compensation claims
- Professional negligence claims
- Superannuation and insurance claims
